ROBBERY.

On the night of the 6th of December, 1816, the Exchange Office of the subscriber, Bridge street, Georgetown, from appearances by a false key, was robbed of the following property, in Specie, consisting of dollars, change, American and English gold, about 200 dollars; bank notes, mostly three dollar notes of the bank of Washington, and some small tickets, together about 30 dollars, a one pound note of the bank of England, and one hundred and sixty four lottery tickets as per numbers below. The lottery tickets can be of no use to the persons taking them, and an attempt to pass them would only lead to a detection, it is therefore hoped that the person or persons who took them, will return them to the subscriber through the Post Office at Georgetown. A liberal Reward will be paid by the subscriber for any information that may lead to the discovery of the persons or a recovery of the property. All keepers of lottery offices in the United States will please to keep a list of the numbers of the following tickets, as it may lead to a discovery of the theft.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, living near the White Post, Frederick county, Virginia, on the evening of the 5th instant, a mulatto man named ALLEN, supposed to be about five feet two or three inches high, chunky and square built, bald headed, which runs far back, round bushy hair, walks rather bowlegged, generally looks to the ground when walking, chews tobacco, & when spoken to commonly chews fast, fond of drink and a great rogue; 50 years old and upwards; the shape of his hair like that of a white man's. Had on when he eloped a fulled plain cloth coat with a tolerable long tail, a light blue grey, his pantaloons dark drab cloth, his waistcoat also fulled cloth, dark or black—all those clothes have been worn some time—two linen shirts, strong stitch-down shoes, coarse new stockings & wool hat half worn or better. It is not known that he took any more clothing. He has a wife at captain Bowman's on Cedar Creek. It is probable he will make for Alexandria or Baltimore to take water in some vessel. The above reward will be given if taken up out of the state and secured in jail so that I get him again, or twenty dollars if taken up in the state and secured in jail as above.

CONGRESS.

IN SENATE—Thursday, Dec. 12.

Mr. Troup, from Georgia, and Mr. Goldsborough, from Maryland, appeared and took their seats.

The two Senators from Indiana, Waller Taylor and James Noble (the act of her admission into the Union having been consummated) produced their credentials and were qualified.

The usual ceremony of classing them, by lot, took place, when it appeared that Mr. Noble was assigned to the class of Senators whose term of service expires on the 3d of March, 1821, and Mr. Taylor to that whose term expires on the 3d of March 1819.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 12.

Mr. Moore, from South Carolina, Mr. Willoughby, from New York, and Mr. Randolph, from Virginia, appeared today.

Mr. Wright, of Md. from the committee to whom the subject was referred reported a bill "to authorise the settlement and payment of certain claims for the services of militia." This bill requires the accounting officer of the treasury to credit and settle all accounts for services of any detachments of militia called into service under the authority of the states for the defence of any part of the United States against the invasion of the enemy during the late war, in the same manner and on the same principles as accounts for the services of militia called out under the authority of the United States—payment therefor to be made in six per cent. stock, to be created for the purpose, provided the states interested shall accept the same as full satisfaction for their claims. The bill was twice read and committed.

Mr. Johnson of Ky. from the military committee, reported a bill to establish three additional military academies, [one in this district, one at Mount Dearborn, South Carolina, and one in the vicinity of Newport, Ken. at the confluence of Ohio and Licking rivers.] The bill received the usual readings, and was committed to the same committee to whom was committed the bill for the establishment of a corps of invalids.

Mr. Condict, of N. J. from a select committee, reported a bill supplementary to the act heretofore passed "for the encouragement of Vaccination."—Read, &c.

Mr. Wilde of Geo. offered for consideration the following resolution, under the impulse of positive information of its necessity; to prevent frauds committed by the sales of vessels abroad, and discharging the seamen without payment of their wages, &c.

"Resolved, That the committee on Foreign Relations be instructed to enquire what alterations are necessary in the several acts for the government and regulation of seamen in the merchant service, and for the relief of sick and disabled seamen, or of those discharged abroad after the sale of their vessels.

After some observations from Mr. Smith of Md. respecting existing laws and usages on this subject, and by Mr. Wilde, the resolution was agreed to.

The engrossed bill for the relief of Nathaniel Williams, was read a third time, passed, and sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. M'Lean of Ky. the committee to whom was referred the acting secy of war's letter on the same subject, resolutions were introduced to enquire into the expediency of opening a road from Reynoldsborough in the state of Tennessee, to intersect the Natchez road, as viewed and marked by the commissioners appointed for that purpose.

On motion of Mr. T. M. Nelson of Va.

Resolved, that the committee on militia affairs, be instructed to enquire into the expediency of making provision for the payment of such arrearages of military clothing as may be due to soldiers discharged from the army of the United States.

Mr. Bennett offered for consideration the following resolution:

Resolved, That the committee of ways and means be instructed to enqure into the expediency of repealing or modifying the act laying duties on retailers of wines spirituous liquors, and foreign merchandize.

Mr. Lowndes of S. C. remarked that, as a member of the committee of ways and means he certainly could have no objection to any enquiry which the House might direct; but in his opinion, there never had been a moment when there was less inducement to repeal this tax than now—and stronger reasons might perhaps be adduced for increasing than for reducing it, he had risen only to say, that he did not wish those who, with him would vote for enquiry, because requested by a member, to be considered as at all pledged to co-operate in the ultimate object of the mover.

The resolve was agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Wendover of N. Y. the house proceeded to the consideration of his motion to appoint a committee to enquire into the expediency of altering the flag of the United States.

The motion of Mr. Wendover was agreed to, and a committee ordered to be appointed accordingly.

NATIONAL UNIVERSITY.

Mr. Atherton, of N. H. offered for consideration a resolution embracing the proposition of an amendment to the constitution of the United States, in the following words:

"The Congress shall have power to establish a National University."

And on the usual question, will the house now proceed to the consideration of the resolution, it was decided in the negative, thus:

For considering it	54
Against it	86

On motion of Mr. M. Nelson, of Va. who suggested the great economy and saving to the United States as well as benefit to the soldiers, of such a provision as was

Resolved, that a committee be appointed to inquire into the expediency of authorizing a commutation for money of the bounty land to soldiers of the regular army, and that they report thereon by bill or otherwise.

Mr. Root, of N. York prefaced a motion he rose to make, by some observations to shew the severity of the operation of the carriage tax on that description of carriages, light waggons, etc. used by farmers and people in moderate circumstances on farming and market business and occasionally in carrying families to church or to see their neighbours, &c. and argued that as the faith of the U. S. was no longer pledged to retain the tax, it could be dispensed with without prejudice to the public service. He then moved,

That the committee of Ways and Means be instructed to enquire into the expediency of repealing so much of the law laying a tax on carriages, &c. as relates to carriages and harness, not exceeding one hundred dollars in value.

Mr. Wright of Md. moved to amend this motion so as to strike out the limit to 100 dollars in value, and thus to include an enquiry into the expediency of repealing the whole law. He predicated this motion on the inequality of the operation of this whole tax, which was very grievous in some sections of the country, whilst in the larger proportion it was scarcely felt.

Mr. Desha of Ky was opposed to Mr. Wrights motion, thinking that to tax could be more equitable than a tax on luxury and expensive habits. As to the inequality of the tax, it was more than counterbalanced by the inequality in an inverse proportion, of other taxes, &c.

Mr. Wright's amendment was lost; and Mr. Root's motion carried, but not by a large majority,

Letter of a passenger on board the ship Herald, capt. Anderson, from Philadelphia for Bordeaux, to his friend in that city.

Communicated for the Philad. American Daily Advertiser.

St. George, Bermuda Islands, November 18, 1816.

Dear Friend—You will be surprized by finding this letter from the above place, instead of from Bordeaux, but so it is, fate altered our course and carried us to this sequestered spot, where we now remain.

We went to sea with a very fine breeze on the 22d of October last, which however, on the 26th. increasing to a gale, blew so violent as to toss our ship about like a feather, and make her draw so much water as to oblige the sailors to work the pump every quarter of an hour, and afterwards through the night without ceasing. You may conceive, how all the passengers felt and what effect the continued noise of the pump made on their ears. The gale towards morning abated, the labor at the pump however still continuing as hard and as fast as ever; all the passengers on board, man after man, like frightened hares, stepped on deck, & with an investigating eye, now looking at the pump, now at the captain, came soon to a resolution to return back, and made a request to that effect. The captain, however, would not consent to it; but the water seeming to gain more on us every moment, he determined at last to sail for the nearest island, which was the Bermudas, for repairs; we offered our services on the way thither, during the day time at the pump, to assist the already worn out sailors. Like soldiers in the field we were now all on duty, from the first passenger down to the last, from his Excellency down to the Monsieur, Master and Citizen. His excellency the ambassador of France and his consul general nobly took the lead in that laudable enterprize. They and we all pumped for our lives with the greatest pleasure imaginable, two persons at a time for a quarter of an hour, for a period of six days, that is to say from Monday the 27th of October, until Saturday night the 2d of November, when we all were agreeably relieved by our safe arrival at this port.

The ship was searched and the leak discovered to be a bored hole which had been left open. The bends of the ship at the same time also having opened a little, occasioned by the late gale, as they say, is going to have a new coat of planks; one side of the ship is already covered, the other side was begun yesterday, and will be finished, as they expect, in about 10 days, when we shall immediately proceed to sea.

There is they say, a perpetual spring and summer at these Islands, the greatest winter being no more than a hail storm. These Islands known by the name of the Bermudas, are a cluster of large and smaller Islands, consisting of the number as it is pretended here, of 365, as many as there are days in the year—

ALEXANDRIA

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

Tuesday, December 17.

Nothing worth particularly mentioning to you occurred yesterday in the House of Representatives, with the exception of the following resolution, which was proposed by Mr. Calhoun and passed:

"Resolved, that a committee be appointed to enquire into the expediency of setting apart the Bonus and the net amount of profits of the National Bank, as a permanent fund for Internal Improvements."

Mr. Calhoun grounded this resolution upon the very prosperous and ample condition of the revenues of the country, and the amicable state in which the Union now stands and is likely to stand with the nations of the world.

Retrospect.—Only twice thirteen years have elapsed since the opinion was general in this country, and widely prevalent in Europe, that republican governments were about to succeed almost every where to monarchies. The dawn of the revolution in France was hailed here with bursts of joy, we say not without distinction of parties, for at that time party was scarcely known among us. There was indeed a variance of sentiment respecting the adoption of what was then called the federal constitution of government; but no sooner was that important matter decided, than harmony prevailed again, and continued to prevail in the public councils of the nation, and among the people, till the violent efforts of several leading characters to embark this country in the cause of France, gave birth to the deplorable schism which rent us in twain.

Many of the first revolutionary leaders in France (Fayette for one instance) were influenced no doubt by honorable and patriotic motives. They misjudged. They imagined they could direct and limit the whirlwind and storm in which nearly all of them miserably perished.

The great, the awful experiment, was tried and, upon trial, it has been found that republican forms of government were incompatible with the genius, the morals and the habits of the French; that more of horrible tyranny was exercised and more of horrible misery inflicted in a few short years, by upstart demagogues calling themselves republicans, than by all the monarchs of western Europe in the space of two centuries back.

The great, the awful experiment, has been tried; and the result is that the number of European kings is increased, while the little republics of that quarter are every one blotted out of existence.

No where in Europe, not even in France, has there been manifested of late the least disposition toward a republican government, unless, with the celebrated French writer Montesquieu, we may call England a republic; for the summit of the hopes and wishes of the remnant of noted republicans in France, was to identify the French constitution with that of England, as fully appears from the following document.

In the letter from the Dukeof Otranto, (Fouche) president of the provisional government of France to the Duke of Wellington, dated June 28, 1815, are these remarkable expressions to the point:

Standing on any eminence you may count a great many of them. The length of the Bermudas is from 20 to 25 miles. The soil of all consists of rock sand, producing spontaneously small cedar, palms, aloes, sour oranges and lemon trees, and also page trees, bearing a fruit if cooked, tasting like apples.

Imported trees are the cocoa, bearing here no fruit, the Bananas, Coffee, Cotton, Peach Apple and Willow tree. In the gardens you find beans cabbage, common and sweet potatoes, &c. Of fish there is a great quantity, as also of turtle. The quadrupeds are hogs, cows, and goats, but no wild animal is to be found. Poultry is plenty, as also a variety of birds of which there is some I have not met with in Pennsylvania.—Other provisions as flour, Indian Corn, and all kind of Liquors are brought from abroad. The number of inhabitants is about 11,000 the greatest part of which are coloured people, either free or slaves. The houses excepting some few of two stories are all one story high, built of the light and soft sand stone of this place, and are arranged within comfortable enough, the roofs of all the houses are all white washed which gives them a winter look, as if they were snowed upon. The white inhabitants look altogether like the Americans, they are polite but somewhat stingy people, the latter owing no doubt to their circumscribed and poor situation. The price of things is every where high at these Islands. No board, for a small bed and small room only, I have to pay five dollars a week. I am painting some portraits for past time, on paper only, which not only pays all my expenses, but at the same time also furnishes me with a rich addition of wine and porter for my stock of Liquors on board the ship.

In the letter from the Dukeof Otranto, (Fouche) president of the provisional government of France to the Duke of Wellington, dated June 28, 1815, are these remarkable expressions to the point:

"The French nation wishes to live under a monarch. She also wishes, that this monarch should govern under the empire of the laws."

"The republic has taught us, how fatal is the excess of liberty; the empire, how fatal is the excess of power. Our desire, and it is unchangeable, is to see the independence, the order & the peace of Europe placed at an equal distance from both these extremes."

"Every one in France looks to the constitution of England—We do not pretend to be more free than she is; we will never consent to be less so."

Now it ought to be remembered that the Duke of Otranto and Carnot, and Fayette, and several other members of the then provisional government, were of the body of the old republicans, and doubtless in the above cited paragraphs they expressed the sentiments of their French brethren of the same school.

What then? Does it follow that free republican government is not the best, because the hundred millions of Europeans either view it with scorn, or regard it as impracticable? By no means. It unquestionably is the best—for a people generally enlightened and virtuous; whereas under the management of a people generally ignorant, or vicious, it utterly corrupts, and becomes, as in France of all governments the worst.

IMPOTRANT

To Americans trading to the West-Indies.

A gentleman of this place lately from the West Indies states, for public information, that masters of American vessels must be cautious not to anchor for a longer period than 24 hours, off any of the British ports in the West Indies from which American commerce is excluded. In this case, they will be liable to seizure and condemnation, on the plea of a design to attempt a breach of the Trade Laws. Our informant adds that one vessel from North Carolina, for anchoring near the port of Antigua, was seized and carried in, and but for some influential friends of her captain, would have been condemned. He understood that several American vessels had been condemned in the other Islands—the above plea being urged as the cause.

HARTFORD, (Con.) Dec 10.

ELECTION of PRESIDENT & V. P.

The Electors of President and Vice-President met in this city on Wednesday last, for the purpose of voting for President and Vice President of the United States. The Electors nine in number, gave their votes unanimously for the hon. RUFUS KING of New York, for President—and for Vice President the hon. JAMES ROSS of Pennsylvania, had five, and the hon. JOHN MARSHALL, of Virginia, Chief Justice of the U. States, had four.

We have often wondered, says the New York Courier, "that Mr. Osborne has not favored the public with a publication of all his poems. The only reason why they are not superior to Lord Byron's or Walter Scott's, is, that they were not written in England. The following little Poem, on Time, may challenge a comparison with any one of the same magnitude which has been written by any living poet. Time is admirably personified and the interest is heightened by every poetic circumstance which could be employed in so short a space."

ON TIME.

Addressed to a lady—By Selleck Osborne.

Mov'd by a strange, mysterious power,
That hastens along the rapid hour,
I touch the deep ton'd string;
Even now I saw his wither'd face,
Beneath yon tower's mouldering base,
Where mossy vestments cling.

Dark roll'ed his cheerless eyes around,
Severely his gristly visage frown'd;
No locks his head array'd;
He grasp'd a hero's antique bust
The marble crumbled into dust,
And sink amidst the shade!

Malignant triumph fill'd his eyes;
"See, hapless mortals, see," he cries,
"How vain your idle schemes,
"Beneath my grasp, the fairest form
"Dissolves and mingles with the worm;
"Thus vanish mortal dreams.

"The works of God and man I spoil;
"The noblest proofs of human toil
"I treat as childish toys:
"I crush the noble and the brave:
"Beauty I mar, and in the grave
"I bury human joys."

Hold! ruthless phantom—hold!' I cried;
If thou canst mock the dreams of pride,
And meaner hopes devour,
Virtue beyond thy reach shall bloom,
When other charms sink to the tomb;
She scorns thy envious power.'

O Frosty wings the demon fled,
Howling, as o'er the wall he sped,
'Another year is gone!'
The ruin'd spire, the crumbling tower,
Nodding, obey'd his awful power,
As TIME flew swiftly on.

Since beauty, then, to Time must bow,
And age deform the fairest brow,
Let brighter charms be yours;
The female mind, embalm'd in truth,
Shall bloom in everlasting youth,
While time himself endures.

Five Dollars Reward.

Ran away on the 7th December a Mulatto boy named John Carter, about 18 years and three or four months old—the said John Carter is an apprentice to Moses Smith, a cooper; had on a pair of dark cloth pantaloons, a white vest, and a blue round jacket, a black fur hat, bright complexion, about five feet high has a tolerable good education sufficient to keep small accounts; he plays tolerably well on a violin. I expect he is about his father's or his uncle Thomas Braddock's as he has some notion of learning the carpenter's business. I will give the above reward if taken out of the corporation, and two dollars if in the corporation. Masters of vessels, and all others, are cautioned against harboring or carrying off the said John Carter at their peril—as the law will be put in force against any such person.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,

Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York,

A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Teres, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of chint"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the infant part of our citizens it is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout asthmatic gout, palsy, lumbagoo, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, (the basis of other lotions) and of unparralled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural, insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent inoxication or any other destructive intemperance the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

Sovereign remedy for Colds, obstinate Coughs, Asthmas, sore throats, and approaching Consumptions, and most disorders of the breast and lungs.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Toothe Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Lee's Infallibe Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent, and intermittent fevers.

Han's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

Land for Sale.

A tract or parcel of Land, containing between two and three hundred acres, on the north side of Occoquan, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles west of Occoquan mills. It is well watered with never failing springs, it is also well timbered, and the great quantity of fur timber on it renders it the more valuable to any person in the coopering line. This land is of the middle soil, and produces corn, wheat or any other grain tolerable well—there is about 100 acres cleared and under good fence. The improvements are a log dwelling house & other out houses, and a good apple orchard of about sixty trees.

ALSO,

One other tract in the same county, within three miles of Occoquan, lying on Sandy Run, containing 47 acres—one half in cultivation and under good fence, the remainder heavily timbered. There are on the premises an old framed dwelling house and out houses and an apple orchard of eighty bearing trees.

Any person inclining to purchase can view the premises and know the terms by applying to the subscriber who lives near them.
